

Guideline for Kosher Hotel ENT TERRACE OMORI SANNO

【About ENT TERRACE OMORI SANNO】

ENT TERRACE OMORI SANNO is the first Kosher certified hotel in Japan. We kindly ask for your cooperation to read and respect the following contents.

【Guideline】

※Please be sure to follow the guideline below while staying in our hotel during your stay.※

- ① People who can respect Kosher and want to know about Jewish culture and Kosher.
- ② People who are interested in Jewish families.
- ③ Companies that want to teach Kosher to employees.
- ④ Feel Jerusalem in Tokyo.
- ⑤ Please follow Kosher^{※1} dietary rules
 - (1) Bringing food and drinks and seasonings into the hotel and cooking are prohibited, but the following foods and drinks are permitted.
 - (2) Unprocessed vegetables, fruits and water can be brought in.
 - (3) However, please use the Kosher seasonings which are prepared in the hotel.

【Sabbath^{※2}】

Please refrain from using electronic devices, handling fire, and working on the Sabbath.

Also, please check in before sunset on Friday.

※1. What is Kosher?

In the Hebrew word “Kosher” means fit or proper. It mainly refers to dietary rules of Jewish which is based on Old Testament.

※2. What is Sabbath?

In Judaism, a new day begins at sunset. Therefore, the Sabbath begins Friday evening at sunset and ends Saturday evening at sunset.